Dear Hugh:

STAT

In reply to your letter of 4 September, I talked to [redacted] and she is being given a going-over through our offices. This takes a little time, and I can't tell you yet just what the answer will be. I explained all this to [redacted] and she was most pleased with the reception she was given.

I, too, am sorry that we did not see you over Labor Day. We were up in the Poconos with Henry and Ray. I hope now to be up in Philadelphia later in the fall, or, from the newspaper accounts, you may be back here.

I do hope you enjoy your Paris and Frankfurt trip, and I would like nothing better than to serve as your guide around Paris.

Janie joins me in very best wishes to Marian and yourself.

Sincerely,

O'Reilly - Sept 15 Sep 47

Dear Hugh:

STAT

I hope your trip to Alaska was a little cooler than it has been around here for the last few weeks. A couple more weeks of this, and I am going to move to either the North or South Pole!

We are coming up to stay with Henry Benedict over Labor Day, and I shall inquire whether or not you are back in town. If so, perhaps we can get together for a luncheon or a dinner.

Janie joins me in best wishes to Marian and yourself.

Sincerely,

R. H. HILLENKOETTER
Rear Admiral, USN
